3. Applying for our roles

All our roles are advertised through a variety of recruitment platforms. For each role, we attach the job description and person specification so that you can find out more about the key responsibilities of the role and what skills, experience, and/or qualifications we are seeking.

Job description & person specification

The job description will explain to you the key responsibilities of the role and what skills, experience, and/or qualifications are required for the role. The person specification also shows which criteria are essential, shown by the disability confidence symbol next to those criteria.

Disability Confident, Care Leavers & Armed Forces Covenant

If you come under one of these categories, then we guarantee if you meet the minimum essential criteria for the role that you'll be shortlisted for to interview/assessment stage.

Our adverts

Within our advert, you'll see a summary of the key things you'll do in the role, where roles can be performed part-time, as a job share, hybrid, or even via remote working we will indicate this too. However, if it doesn't say, or you have questions about the role please get in touch with the contact details provided in the advert.

Filling out your application

We ask you to send us a copy of your CV and a covering note identifying your skills and experience in meeting the role requirements.

Take a look at the job description and let us know which of those essential criteria you'll bring to the role and anything extra. It's your chance to tell us why you'll make a great addition to our team here at the Midlands Engine and for the role.

4. Shortlisting

At the shortlisting stage the recruiting manager will review all applications against the essential criteria for their role. If a high number of applications are received the recruiting manager may then bring in some of the desirable criteria to be able to come to a suitable shortlist for the next stage. In some instances, they may request further information from you if it's unclear whether you meet the essential criteria so do keep a check on the email you have used to apply in case they try to get in touch.

Given the high number of applications, it may not be possible to respond to every application received. Please be aware that if you haven't received an invitation to interview by the interview date your application has not been successful. Please note that we do not routinely provide feedback on applications that have not shortlisted for interview.

5. Interview and assessment

As with many organisations we tend to do in-person interviews, but we also use Microsoft Teams virtual interviews too.

In person interviews

We'll let you know in your invite where the interview is being held, and any local information you might need such as where to park and who to ask for on arrival.

Microsoft Teams interviews

If the interview or assessment stages is being held on Teams you will need MS Teams on your device to be able to join the meeting. You can download MS Teams from your usual App Store or via Microsoft on your laptop or PC. You won't need to pay for the app, just use the free version and you'll be able to join as a 'guest' on your interview day. We'll send the MS Teams invite to the email address you've applied to us with. Here's a helpful link to a video from Microsoft showing you a walkthrough of how to join teams meetings.

Accessibility and reasonable adjustments

If you have any special requirements or need any adjustments to our recruitment process, please do let us know. You'll find contact details for the role you've applied for either in the advert or on your email invites to interview and/or assessment stages so you can get in touch with them in the first instance or for further support please email the contact name in the job advert.

6. Interview hints & tips

When you attend an interview or assessment with us, we want to give you the best opportunity to show us your skills and experience, so we've put together a few pointers to help you prepare.

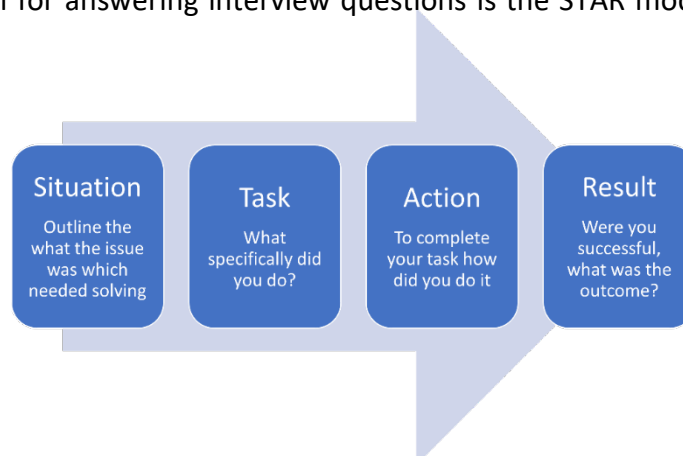

Plan - Where is the interview being held – if it's in person, check the route, plan your journey, and where will you park. If online, have you got your joining link, are you using a laptop or a phone – is it fully charged?

Task, presentation, or assessment – were you asked to prepare a presentation for your interview? Have you been sent an assessment or task to complete? Make sure you check the invite and email to see if there are any other elements to complete or prepare.

Things to take with you / have to hand – please come with your right to work, proof of address, proof of qualifications. Do you like to ask questions at the interview and perhaps need to take your notebook?

Review the advert, job description & the Midlands Engine website – it's always good to remind yourself of the key things the role needs from you and also what the values of the organisation are. This can help you see how you'll fit into the organisation and which of your skills are going to add the most value for the employer.

Practice – it's always good to try and predict some of the questions you may get asked and prepare some answers. Try popping these down as bullet point prompts and practice answering some standard interview questions. Also, if you need to have specific technical knowledge, make sure you are up to date with your knowledge. A great model for answering interview questions is the STAR model as shown on the following page.

This STAR Model gives you a blueprint for covering everything you would need when answering interview questions or competency questions more generally even in application forms. It also ensures you draw on examples from real-life experience or where that's not possible follow the steps through STAR and think what you would do in that situation to demonstrate you know what would be needed.

7. Equal Opportunities

We recognise the importance of promoting equality of opportunity across all services as well as in the employment of our staff. We aim to promote equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talent, skills, and potential and we welcome applications from a diverse range of candidates.
